Promoting the Fake LGBTQ Movement at the 2018 Martin Luther King Jr Day Event

(Written and Distributed in Traverse City, MI Area by Bill Wiesner (TCFamily.org) (Version 02 dated 2018-02-19)

My premise in writing this flyer is to show how the Traverse City Human Rights Commission – along with its like-minded allies – heavily promote homosexuality in our community, and how they specifically use the noble Martin Luther King Day event to do so.

I attended the January 8, 2018 Traverse City Human Rights Commission (HRC) Meeting where I saw several of the Commissioners looking at the ad which was placed in the Northern Express advertising the upcoming MLK Day event at the State Theatre. In part the short ad stated that the event would include: "...inspiration from local faith leader Chava Bahle."

I remember Mrs. Bahle (then named Rabbi Stacie Fine) spoke at the so-called "Diversity Weeks" held at Traverse City Central High School for 3 years from 2001 to 2003. These talks in large part were used to promote homosexuality to the high schoolers. Here is a partial transcript:

Rabbi Staci Fine's Diversity Week 2002 Talk at TC Central High School (Excerpts)

... The question is, "Can you be kind to the kids who nobody likes?" Um, I was one of them. And I remember people both ways. I'll remember when I go to my high school reunion this stuff, I'll remember people who showed me even a small kindness. My Dad ... just went to his 50th high school reunion ... and there was a kid in his class, um, who was gay. And, I don't think it was, I don't think that they called it that among his comrades, but the kid was gay. And the people of my Dad's class, many of them beat this guy to a pulp on a regular basis. They just beat him up a lot. And it was interesting to me that the guy came up to my Dad. My Dad, it's hard to think now because he's 70 and he's my Dad, but apparently he pretty hip, cool kind of fellow ... and very popular, the captain of the basketball team, and all kinds of cool stuff. And what was interesting to me was this, he told me that this guy who was in his class who is gay ... came over to my Dad at the reunion and said, "I remember you and your friends because you were the only people who were nice to me."

... We are in one of two categories: either we are allies to diversity or we are competing ...
.] If you are not part of the solution, you are certainly part of the problem.

Chava Bailey went on with the high schoolers to say:

"... We are in one of two categories: either we are allies to diversity or we are competing. Um, the reality is that if you are not part of the solution ... [Note: could not clearly understand next 3 seconds.] If you are not part of the solution, you are certainly part of the problem. Now I believe that most of us are not out actively promoting, um, hate speech and hatred and discrimination and bigotry. But the reality is the vast majority of us are standing somewhere in the middle of the Bell Curve ... Collusion in this field is defined as cooperation in reinforcing stereotypical attitudes, behaviors, and norms. When we keep colluding we are one of three labels: [1] Either we just say nothing ... [2] Another way it's often colluded is by denying it: "Oh, it's not that big a deal." "They didn't really mean it." ... [and 3] The third type of collusion obviously is active participation ..."

You might be surprised that I would agree with Mrs. Bailey in all three of her collusion points:

#1 ... that we should not collude by ignoring anyone who is being bullied;

#2 ... that we should not say that anyone getting bullied is not a problem; and

#3 ... that we should never be bullies ourselves.

However, we do disagree here, when she states:

"Collusion in this field is defined as cooperation in reinforcing stereotypical attitudes, behaviors, and norms."

In effect I believe that she is saying that anyone who disagrees that homosexuality is normal and healthy and to be celebrated is "colluding" in a sense that is harmful and hateful in our society.

[Added NOTE: Rabbi Bahle was under the weather and could not attend; However TCFamily handed out 70 sets of the 4 recent flyers, including to the inspirational "The Blessed Hearts" Gospel Singers]

Dr. Scott Lively

But just consider what world renowned expert in the field of the LGBTQ Movement Dr. Lively shares about the history of the "gay" movement, and specifically the origin the modern day Traverse City "Human Rights Commission." (This excerpt is taken from his revealing "Hollywood Chickenhawk Scandal Part One" article:

"Consider just a few salient facts documented in The Pink Swastika: Homosexuality in the Nazi Party and on my blog www.scottlively.net:

The German "Grandfather of Gay Rights," Karl Heinrich Ulrichs, was molested at 14 by his riding instructor and went on to form the world's first "gay rights" organization in the 1860s.

The first characterization of homosexual sodomy as a "human right" was by the German Society for Human Rights in the 1920s, whose most famous member was Hitler's "gay" second-in-command Ernst Roehm (head of the Brown Shirts). Munich police records identified at least 11 boys recruited from a local high school for sex with Roehm – according to journalist Heinz Hoene's book, The Order of the Death's Head, (called a "Monumental Achievement" by The New York Times).

The first American homosexual organization was the US chapter of Roehm's Society for Human Rights, started in Chicago in 1924 by Henry Gerber and two other men, all of whom were arrested shortly thereafter for sex with teen boys.

One of those abused boys, as an adult, molested another teen boy named Harry Hay, who is known today as the "Father of the American Gay Rights Movement." Till his death, Hay was an outspoken advocate for Man/Boy sex and wore a sweatshirt reading "NAMBLA Walks With Me" in Gay

Pride Parades after the pederast group had been banned by the marketing gurus who took over the “gay” movement.

The Stonewall Riots that are commemorated each year as “Gay Pride Day” were triggered by “gay” male patrons of the Stonewall Bar in New York City, angered at police efforts to arrest a 14-year-old boy transvestite prostitute (Mark Pascal, Varieties of Man Boy Love).

Many early “gay” activists were open pederasts, including NAMBLA founder David Thorstad, who also launched the Gay Activist Alliance in 1969, which spawned – directly or indirectly – innumerable LGBT activist organizations, including today’s political behemoth the Washington DC Based Human Rights Campaign – HRC (which named me public enemy #1 of the global LGBT agenda in 2014).

HRC’s founder was Terrance “Terry” Bean, an Obama fundraising bundler accused of sex with a teen boy in 2014 but who escaped prosecution when (after a public monetary settlement offer) the boy (who had been in hiding at the time) declined to testify. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Terry\_Bean ...

So I would ask Rabbi Bailey and everyone on the HRC if this is the history of the “gay” movement, then should we be promoting it to the 10,000 TCAPS Kindergarten children – 12th grade young adults, or should we rightly be discouraging this high risk behavior, at the same time sharing love and truth with those struggling with same sex attraction?

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

... Excerpts from a 1958 Advice Column in EBONY Magazine:

Civil rights icon saw homosexuality as a ‘culturally acquired’ ‘problem’ with a ‘solution’ [psychiatric counseling] – a “habit” stemming from a series of negative “experiences and circumstances.”

I would ask Rabbi Bailey and the HRC how they can possibly promote homosexual behavior on Martin Luther King Day when he compassionately shared that homosexuality was “a problem with a solution [psychiatric counseling]...”

David Pickup: Former homosexual and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist gives a fascinating talk about what most people don’t know about homosexuality. Simply google “Reparative therapy: How healing from homosexuality & change really works” to watch his short 18 minute compassionate and truthful talk.

On the Traverse City HRC Website it states that:

“This commission consists of 9 members to be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Commission. Membership shall be broadly representative of the entire community.

Our Mayor Jim Carruthers is a self-identified

homosexual, and recently he was one of many others who nominated Emmy Lou Cholak for the Sarah Hardy Award, because in part she has been on the front lines of “the LGBT Rights Movement.”

Also, our City Clerk Benjamin Marentette is a self-identified homosexual who nominated Jen Cameron because of her organizing: Transgender Day of Remembrance, UpNorth Pride Parade and Rally; Loud and Proud Block Party; Pride at the Playhouse; and Pride Ride with Norte, among other things.

Jenn Cameron had the police escort me out of a public “Polestar North” town hall meeting where the entire community was invited; said that I was the only one who could not speak at the “From Selma to Stonewall” movie screening; and stepped on my heel to try to stop me from handing out our “Fake LGBTQ Movement” flyer at the “Gay Pride week” picnic at the public Clinch Park (a policeman talked to her to encourage her to stop her harassment.) Both Emmy Lou Cholak (8:0) & Jenn Cameron (6:2) were voted in to share the 2018 Sarah Hardy Award. (TCFamily will be speaking and handing out the 4 attached flyers at their award night at the (March 5th ?) City Commission Meeting.)

All of God’s laws are there to protect us, like it’s better to be restricted by a fence at the top of a cliff than to need an ambulance at the bottom.

In closing, especially for our Jewish friends Rabbi Chava and Emmy Lou Cholak, consider Isaiah 53 from the Bible:

“3 He is despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief,
And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;
He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

4 Surely He has borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows;
Yet we esteemed Him stricken,
Smitten by God, and afflicted.
5 But He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was upon Him,
And by His stripes we are healed.
6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one, to his own way;
And the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He opened not His mouth;
He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.”

The Price for Sin is great, and Jesus paid that price. We all simply need to repent from our sins that He chose to lay down his life for, and trust in him for His gift of forgiveness and everlasting life. Find out how from a Jewish Christian, Ray Comfort, by Googling “Why Christianity Tract”.
